Florida – April 8-14, 2015

The 2015 Florida Performance Tour for College Park Orchestras

Touring is the highlight of the high school student's musical experience. The tour experience extends musicians' abilities, bonds student musicians into a more cohesive ensemble, and gives students the opportunity to showcase both their talents and the musical excellence of the College Park Instrumental Music program. College Park High School award-winning ensembles have a rich history of concert tours. Tours in recent years include the: Disney recording studio experience; International Music Festival in New York and Carnegie Hall performance; Chicago Symphony and North Western University tour; Washington DC and Kennedy Center for Performing Arts; and Pacific Basin Music Festival in Hawaii. Touring has allowed our ensembles to compete in international music festivals, participate in professional studio recording sessions and engage in enriching musical exchanges with high schools, colleges, universities and with professional musicians across the country. Following in that rich tradition of tour experiences, we are planning a Florida Performance Tour April 8-14, 2015.

The Florida Performance tour will feature performances and clinics at Universal Orlando and Walt Disney World, a joint concert with a local high school, clinics at a Florida University and an educational experience at Kennedy Space Center. A detailed proposed itinerary from our travel agent, World Projects, is attached.

Our String Orchestra and our Symphony Orchestra will be performing on the tour. The Symphony Orchestra is comprised of select string, wind and percussion students in the College Park Instrumental Music Program. The following students will be attending:
